

Reliability Metrics Working Group Response

LMP Divergence

Locational marginal pricing structures are not in widespread use across North America and therefore do not lend themselves to be useful as NERC or even Region-wide metrics. Further, LMP is a market pricing mechanism and does not have a direct relationship with reliability.

RMWG Consensus: Considered and dismissed